

International Union Against
Tuberculosis and Lung Disease

SAVE THE DATE

March 11–13, 2010

The Union North America Region

2010 | 14th Annual Conference

Rosen Plaza Hotel

9700 International Dr
Orlando, FL 32819 USA
www.rosenplaza.com

Under One Sun:

Looking Ahead
Working Together
Moving Forward

Join us in Orlando to discuss clinical, diagnostic, scientific and social challenges to tuberculosis control.

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Opening Session: presented by Paul Farmer, MD, PhD

General Sessions:

- TB-HIV Co-infection: A Sum Greater than Its Parts
- Basic Science: From the Bench to the Bedside
- Social Determinants of TB Transmission, Diagnosis and Treatment
- Assessing the Roles, Results and Confounders of Newer Laboratory Methods

STOP TB Meeting – USA and Canada

Nursing Assembly

Networking Opportunities

Latin American Liaison Meeting

Clinical Conversations: Discuss challenging cases with colleagues

CALL FOR POSTERS

Abstracts are invited for posters and oral presentation. Abstracts related to outcomes from program initiatives and research on all aspects of tuberculosis control, including epidemiologic, clinical, basic science, nursing, behavioral, psychosocial and educational studies are welcome. Deadline: October 2, 2009.

Limited travel scholarships will be awarded to qualified individuals from North, Central and South America and the Caribbean.

For more information contact:

Kitty McAndrews

American Lung Association of the Upper Midwest

Phone: 312-781-1100

E-Mail: kmcandrews@lungil.org

www.theunion.org/conferences/conferences.html